Dear Ed,

I am immensely indebted to you and your fine colleagues for the excellence of the hospitality and thoughtfulness you all showed to Pat and myself during our recent visit, as well as for your superb handling of all things pertaining to the conference of last weekend.

It is obvious to any visitor upon arrival at your installation the attention to detail you and your colleagues give to maintaining the base. It is just extremely "well-manicured." What has always impressed me, however, and particularly during the last week is the identical attention to detail you give to the visitor as well as to the installation. Additionally, what is done for the individual is always performed in a happy and enthusiastic fashion and always with the question "Can we do more?".

The conferees, and their spouses, have been vocal in praise of how well you all took care of them and they noted it was at the personal sacrifice of time of you and many of your people. It would be unfair if I were to single out names for fear I might overlook one. I also realize that there are people working behind the scenes whose contribution is equally as valuable as those we can see performing. I ask you, on behalf of all of us, to extend our most sincere commendation and our great appreciation for being the kind of people you all are.

Yours,

/s/ Stansfield Turner

Dear Harry,

I have enclosed a self-explanatory note I have sent to [redacted] I wish to express to you, also, the thanks of Pat and myself as well as the conferees, for all that was done for us. I know you well enough to know that your "fine hand" was involved in this. You can be justly proud of your fine troops.

Yours,
